WHIG NOMINATION.

FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS

JAMES COLLINS

OF IOWA COUNTY.

Whig County Convention.

The Whigs of the different towns or precincts in Milwaukee and Washington Counties are requested to choose delegates—three from each town or precinct—to represent them in Convention to be held at Prairieville, Saturday the 18th inst., at 12 o'clock, M. for the purpose of nominating candidates to be supported at the ensuing election.

By Order of the County Committee.

Sept. 6 1845.

Two columns or more of the last Courier are occupied in whipping the independent democrats into the traces. The Doctor himself, having been recently whipped is by the Madison Argus, now a fit instrument to whip in others. He labors hard to make the locos swallow the whole ticket nominated at the Prairieville Democratic Convention. A poorer or more miserable ticket was never presented to the freemen of this county. The Doctor is well aware of this, and of the dissatisfaction that prevails among all the democrats, except the collar men, and the clique that made the nomination. Hence his efforts to make them swallow the whole ticket, bankrupt swindlers, traitors, and all. Go ahead, Doctor. If you have in your ranks such pliant tools as a locofoco who recently stated to us that he always voted the "straight ticket," and in so doing voted once for a man just out of the penitentiary, you may succeed.

CHARLES H. LARKIN.—This man, now the locofoco candidate for Register, the most lucrative office in the county, was only some two or three years ago a whig. Failing to obtain office in the whig party, and deeming himself in the minority, he passed over into the ranks of the locofocos, who are now doing their best to reward the traitor.—No wonder that men who have always voted the locofoco ticket, complain of such a nomination; but they will complain in vain, as it is in perfect keeping with locofoco policy.

NO BLOOD SHED.—The Louisville Journal say that the reason that no blood was shed in the execution of the will of the meeting at Lexington was, without doubt, owing to the illness of Mr. Clay. He was confined to his bed at the time, and pronounced by his physician in danger of losing his life. Had he been in health, says that paper, we have no idea he would, unremittingly, have suffered his property to be removed without his consent, and his attempt to protect it would probably have cost the lives of many.

THE BIRMINGHAM SOLVED.—The disappearance of the Doctor of the Courier from Milwaukee, and his hanging on at Madison for nearly four weeks last winter, involved a mystery that puzzled some of his friends to solve. The confessions of the Doctor in the last Courier, he having informed the public of his visits to the "Tiger," at length, furnish the solution.

WE are happy to be informed, since the publication of the article yesterday respecting a light on the pier at the mouth of the river, that a light house is being erected there by Uncle Sam, and will be completed in a week or ten days.

OPPOSITION TO ALBANY FROM BOSTON.—A New Haven paper says:

The directors of the Western Railroad are proposing to run a line from Albany to Boston, and vice versa; fare $2, speed thirty miles the hour; and four stops to feed and water their iron horses and let their drivers breathe. The extreme low fare on the Hudson is drawing off so much of the travel which passes over the Western Railroad, that the Directors in self defense must do something to counteract these losses."

There are a set of men whose success in wooing—and it is unfeeling—we cannot comprehend—Grave, emaciated, hollow-eyed, who never look the person in the face whom they address; who never smile, whose breath is withered, and the extremest edge of their chairs, a full yard distant from the dinner table. We have never seen one of these scare-crows fail of getting a wife. How it is, heaven knows! Can it be that the ladies ask them?—[Boston Times.]

A QUIRISTON CROSS BABIES.—By this we do not mean knocking their brains out, we do not mean giving them paroxysm, Dilly's elixir, Dally's camomile, black drop, or any poison. The only requisite to quiet the squalling, squealing, miserable little wretches of a baby, is that it shall possess a nose. In the midst of its screaming, press your finger gently and repeatedly across the cartilage of that useful organ, and in less than two minutes it will be asleep. The eastern paper from whence this important discovery is derived, says in one minute, but we allow two, to prevent any disappointment.—[English paper.]

Counting, says Ephraim, is done on printing principles; there being a good deal of the hand work about it.

A lady who had refused to give, after hearing a charity sermon, her pocket picked as she was leaving the church. On making the discovery, she said, "If God could just find the way into my pocket, it seems the devil could."

OUT AND IN.—A Frenchman, who was travelling in a canal boat, was in the cabin at the time the boat was passing under a bridge. The captain shouted "look out!" to the passengers at the top of his voice. The Frenchman understood him literally, and he poked his head out of the cabin. He received a severe bump on the forehead which knocked him sprawling on the floor. He jumped up in a great rage, scolded his head, and addressed the captain in the most indignant style. "Sare, what you say 'look out' for? Why you not say 'look in'?"

SLAVE TRADE.—The Grand Jury of the Circuit Court of the United States, at Portland, Me., found bills against Capt. Cyrus Libby, late master of the brig Poospatuck, for participation in the slave trade, which, under a statute of the U. S. is declared to be piracy.

Also, two other bills against the same, for being engaged in other offenses, connected with slave trading, declared by the act of 1818, to be high misdemeanors, punishable by fine and imprisonment.

For the Daily Sentinel.
To Charles H. Larkin.

Did you or not, immediately after your defection from the Whigs and union with the Loco's, hold a conversation with a prominent whig, in which you mentioned such arguments as the following?

Larkin.—Come, J.—join the democrats, and I'll warrant you a good, fat office in two years—one that will support you and your family.

J.—I believe the whig principles right, and am therefore determined to stick to them.

Larkin.—Principles who care for principles—I go for office, and am determined to have it.—Just renounce your squeamishness about principles—join the democrats, and you shall have anything you want. There is no use in remaining in the minority.

L. M.

THE WHIG ARGUMENT IS A NUT-SHELL.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune is on a visit to Lowell, Massachusetts, and writes that—"All New England—indeed, all the North—bears on its face a tariff argument, but at Lowell it is condensed to a conviction. The little State of Massachusetts is a better market for the Union than all England and her Colonies, and Lowell alone consumes more flour than we export to Britain."

CONSIDERING THE CONDITION OF THE CAPITAL AND OPERATIVE, WHO WOULD STRIP THESE TEMPLES, GLITTERING WITH THE TROPHIES OF HAPPY INDUSTRY, AND INVITE TO COMPETITION WITH EASY, VOLUNTARY LABOR, THE PAUPER AND CONVICT TOIL OF THE MISERABLE OLD WORLD?"

SAYS MARRIAGE.—A couple had been living together, as man and wife, in Philadelphia, for some time. The gentleman—perhaps becoming tired of the incumbency—refused to support his reputed wife. She instituted a suit to obtain her share of his worldly substance. The defense was, that they were not legally married. It appeared that no clergyman or minister of the law officiated at the marriage ceremony; but that the parties acknowledged themselves man and wife in the presence of witnesses.

THIS JUDGE SARGENT DECIDED TO BE A LEGAL MARRIAGE, AND ORDERED THE HUSBAND TO GIVE SECURITY FOR THE PAYMENT OF $10 PER WEEK FOR THE SUPPORT OF HIS WIFE. WITH THIS DECISION THE HUSBAND REFUSED TO COMPLY, AND WAS IMPRISONED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT. HE WAS SUBSEQUENTLY BROUGHT BEFORE THE COURT, BACKED BY AN EXTRAORDINARY COMBINATION OF LEGAL TALENT, ON AN APPLICATION FOR A DISCHARGE.—BUT ALL TO NO PURPOSE; THE JUDGE WAS INEXORABLE.

THE DECISION IS NOT NEW. THIS INTERPRETATION OF THE LAW WAS ESTABLISHED IN ENGLAND MANY YEARS AGO, AND A LAW PROVIDING FOR MARRIAGE IN THIS FORM WAS ADOPTED IN SOUTH CAROLINA IN 1709, "IN ORDER THAT NONE MIGHT BE HINDERED IN SO NECESSARY A WORK."

Will leave for New Britain, Vernon, Milwaukee and Troy, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, returning every alternate day.

Will leave for Oak Creek, Racine, Southport, Half Day, and Waukesha to Chicago, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning alternate days.

By the above arrangement it will be perceived there is a daily line of four horse post coaches running from Milwaukee to Galena, and from Milwaukee to Janesville, also connecting with Milwaukee via the Stage Line, via Winona and St. Paul, with the line to Prairie du Chien. Passengers at Janesville can also take passage duty for Galena.

Passengers at Madison can go through to Chicago in two days via Janesville, White water, Janesville, Rockford, Beloit and Elgin, also to Galena via Freeport, and Scales Mound to Galena.

The coaches are all of the best class of Troy built coaches.
